PATRIOTIC SOCIETY OBSERVES HOLIDAY

Banquet at the Cairo.

MR. IRWIN DELIVERS EULOGY Typographical Temple.

Asserts Washington Contributed Made Possible an Abraham Lincoln He Established by His Victories.

Country." Gen. Marcus J. Wright, one of the brigadier generals of the Confederate army, and vice commander of the society, acted as toastmaster.

of Louisville, responded to "Gen. Washington," and Dr. J. G. B. Bulloch, member of the Bulloch family, of Roswelf, Ga., and cousin of President Roosevelt, Calvary Baptist Congregation spoke on "The Order of Washington: A society of chivalry." Dr. Bulloch is chancellor and historian of the organization.

The dinner was served in the banquet hall, and at each plate American flags HIS LIFE SHOWN IN PICTURES were placed. When the banqueters sat down these flags were pinned to their Introduced the Speaker.

Gen. Wright introduced former Representative Irwin, who delivered a eulogy on Washington.

"I am proud," he said, "to offer my tribute to the memory of that great man whose 177th anniversary of birth we are to-day commemorating.

"It would be interesting to note and compare the conditions of life now with those existing when his eyes first opened upon the world in which he was to bene one of its most striking figures. The telephone, the telegraph, or life were then unknown. But brains, genius, nobility of character are superior to environments, and stand forth as stalwart, sun-crowned kings over mind and this prost out the exquisite delights of the forefathers made directoire, with a pearl dog collar. wart, sun-crowned kings over mind and ings, and make their imperishable mark were experienced.

on the world's destiny. so largely to his undying fame, and that human liberty. Mark the spots where men gave up their lives in torture to windcaste the interest of the spots where most demurely and properly.

Mrs. M. E. O'Connor was indeed the most demurely and properly. cindicate the integrity of their souls; add sufferings which have found no record. and imagine, if you can, the whole. Liberty has cost more than all these. The splendor of Washington's victory and of washington's victory and of vivid pictures, and with much delightful messaline. Miss Edna Hardy wore an weight to historical atmosphere his whole life was that he accomplished verity to historical atmosphere.

China forming an alliance and overrun-ning the world. "Let us be warned," he on the wall, and correctly interpret 'Mene, Mene, Tekel, Upharsin,

Officers and Members. The officers and members of the Order of Washington are:

Charles C. Rogers, commander; Gen. Ethelbert Fairfax, second vice commandurer; Mr. Howard P. Wright, secretary; Mr. Cuthbert Brown, herald; Mr. William for their work. M. Conrad, registrar; Dr. Middleton F. Cuthbert, Mr. Eugene Baylor, Lieut, Col. I. W. Littell, Mr. William Gaston Bulloch, Admiral Stockton, U. S. N.; Mr. Armistead Baylor, Mr. Edwin Allston Hill, Mr. Douglass L. Bulloch, Mr. R. Mason Ball, Capt. Philip Walker, U. S. A.; Mr. Henry Sawtelle, Mr. Lucius M. Cuthbert, Capt. J. B. Schindel, U. S. A.; Col. G. Noble Jones, Mr. Hart P. Grigsby, Hon. M. H. Bowker, Judge E. M. Bowker, Mr. George W. Brown, Dr. Francis J. Woodman, Mr. Josiah Bedon, Mr. J. M. Poullain, and Mr. Henry P. Holden Capt. Atwood Wiltshire and Mr. Welch were guests of the order.

To Sing Handel's "Creation."

Temple to-night, has an advance sale which argues well for the popularity of orchestra has forty pieces. The soloists p. m. resterday, are as follows: are Mrs. Anna Grant Fugitt, Harry Steyens, and Walter Humphrey.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY
Take LAXATIVE BROMO Quinthe Tablets. Druggista refund money if it fails to cure. E. W.
GROVE'S Signature is on each box. 25c.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Going to the home lunch room of Jesse Ware, a negro, to serve an attachment for non-support issued by Judge De Lacy, of the Jurenile Court, a policeman found crepe on the door and an undertaker's wagon in front of the house. Ware die late Sunday night.

Funeral services for Robert S. Collins. B lifelong resident of Georgetown, who died Satur-day, will be held this morning at 9 o'clock in Hely Trinity Catholic Courch. Prior to the mass short services will be held at the bome of Samuel H. Collins, a brother. 1408 Thirty-fifth street northwest. Interment will be in Holy Rood Cemetery.

Claiming to be an inspector of the District Water Department, a man whom the police be-lieve to be a professional sneak thief, called at 2429 Eighteenth street northwest and 2475 Eighteenth vesterday afternoon, and told the occurs been sent to examine the meters. He was

J. Rogers, in the Police Court torning, waired preliminary hearing and tide, 4:34 a. m. and 5 p. m. Low tide, 4:34 a. m. and 5 p. m. To-morrow—High tide, 11:19 a. m. and 11:17 p. m. Low tide, 5:22 a. m. and 5:55 p. m. William J. Rogers, in the Police Court from the Board of Californ's Constant beld in $500 bond to await the action of the grand

DEUTSCHE: Vergesset nicht an der Inaugura-Harpers Perry, W. Va., Feb. 22.—Both river muddy,

GOMPERS IS LAUDED

Central Labor Union Passes Resolu tion Controverting Reports.

Action in the form of a resolution, con mning a statement made by a Washington paper that President Samuel Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor did not show due respect to the local union men, at which he had been invited to make an address, was taken by the Washington Central Labor Union at its regular weekly meeting held last night at

The resolution reads: 'Resolved, That the Central Labor 'nion of the District of Columbia extend Largely to Human Liberty and for his presence on that occasion, and, notwithstanding the newspaper comments to the contrary, we hereby pledge ou and Other Great Men of the Nation sincere support and manifest our confidence in his loyalty to the labor movement in general, and particularly his dee interest in the central body of the Dis-

The life and deeds of George Washington were eulogized at the annual banquet of the Order of Washington in the Smith, representing the tribes of the Cairo last night. Men prominent in poli- Four Nations. They presented the grievtribute to the life of the "Father of His that the influence of organized labor society, acted as toastmaster. Former Representative Harvey S. Irwin, Honors Washington.

Colonial Days and the Minuet De-

the reception in Calvary Baptist Church last night would have gratified the desire.

From out of the past brilliant tableaux were formed, beautiful scenes were created, and charming illusions made to appeal to the imagination. The glories of the Revolution were brought to earth in this. less," and a thousand other achievements of science so indispensable to modern ated, and charming illusions made to appearls and diamonds. Miss Minnle Carpeal to the imagination. The giories of silk, with touches of pink chiffon velvet, the Revolution were brought to earth in the lace yoke embroidered with silver, this prosy old twentieth century, and all and a string of pearls. Mrs. J. W. Beller

More than 150 members of the Sunday 'It is to only one achievement that I school, masters and maids, learned anew shall call your attention, as contributing the ancient etiquette of colonial days, pink satin. Miss O'Toole wore blue satin.

His Life Unfolded

It was all a part of the unfolding of Evolution of the Flag.

"and look toward the handwriting of scenic effect, was the climaxing tabe wall, and correctly interpret 'Mene, leau. The color was brilliant, and the leau. The color was brilliant, and the stage management would have done credit robe over white satin. Mrs. W. L. Baker CITY IS HIS TRUE MEMORIAL to professionals. Applause from a church embroidery. packed full of tager friends thundered at this excellently conceived picture.

A short address was given by Col. Marcus J. Wright, vice commander; Mr. Thomas S. Hopkins, a civil war veteran, "The meaning of the flag." The charge are receiving much commendation

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

Washington, Monday, Feh. 22, 199-8 p. m.
It will be colder Thesday in the Southwest, with freezing temperature probable Thesday night in Arkansas, Northern Texas, and Northwestern Louisiana, and colder Wednesday in the Central valleys and the Gulf States generally.

Anna McLaughlin wore a directoire gown of pink messaline, trimmed with gold the Gulf States generally. Steamers departing Tuesday for European ports will have south to east winds, increasing by Wednesday morning, to the Grand Banks.

Local Temperature.

Midnight, 42; 2 a. m., 40; 4 a. m., 37; 6 a. m., 38 8 a. m., 38; 10 a. m., 41; 12 noon, 45; 2 p. m., 47; 4 p. m., 48; 6 p. m., 48; 8 p. m., 48; 10 p. m., 46; naximum, 48.8; minimum, 34.4. Handel's "Creation."

Relative humidity-8 a. m., 35; 8 p. m., 96. Rainfall (8 p. m. to 8 p. m.). 0. Hours of sunshine, 0. Washington Choral Union at Masonic Temperature same date last year-Maximum, 34;

Temperatures in Other Cities.

Max. Min. 8 p. m. fall.

	Asheville, N. C	60	42	54	0.
	Atlanta, Ga	70	56	62	0.
	Atlantic City, N. J	46	38	42	300
	Bismarck, N. Dak	22	10	20
	Boston, Mass	42	32	40	-
	Buffalo, N. Y	42	30	34
	Chicago, Ill		38	38	***
	Cincinnati, Ohio		38	52	-
	Cheyenne, Wyo		18	18	0.1
	Denver, Colo		22	20	0.3
	Des Moines, Iowa		34	36	0.4
	Galveston, Tex		64	66
	Helena, Mont	34	22	30	-
	Indianapolis, Ind		38	52
	Jacksonville, Fla		60	70	0.0
	Kansas City, Mo		40	48	0.
	Little Rock, Ark		54	72	T
	Los Angeles, Cal	62	48	80
	Marquette, Mich		24	28
	Memphis, Tenn		52	70	0.1
	New Orleans, La	78	68	72	T
	New York, N. Y	48	32	44
	Omaha, Nebr	40	36	36	0.
	Pittsburg, Pa	50	30	48
1	Portland, Me	34	20	32	**
ì	Portland, Oreg		38	46
	Salt Lake City, Utah		26	30	-
	St. Louis, Mo		43	54	0.
	St. Paul, Minn	32	26	39	-
	San Francisco, Cal		46	56

Tide Table.

Condition of the Water.

KNIGHTS GIVE BALL AT THE ARLINGTON

Order of Washington Gives body at a recent smoker held by the Second Annual Affair for Charity a Success.

HAVE THE WHOLE FIRST FLOOR

Parlors, Banquet Hall, and Ballroom in Use, and Are Filled with Handsomely Gowned Women and Distinguished Men-Affair Is Voted One of Most Successful Ever Given,

The Knights of Columbus gave their the Arlington Hotel, the whole first floor of parlors, the banquet hall, and ball

An orchestra played all the evening, gold, and wore pearls.

Revolution at the new Mason and the hall room was bandsomely Miss Helen McDermott wore yellow Auditorium yesterday morning? and the ball room was handsomely dorned with flags and other decorations appropriate to the day. The affair was voted one of the most de-banquet hall. Scene Is Brilliant,

The gowns of the women were exeptionally handsome and made the scene brilliant one, Mrs. Joseph E. Ralph ore a black satin directoire gown, with lace over pink, with necklace of gar- with duchesse lace.

George Washington's birthday as he him-

White Lace Robe.

Miss Shaw wore a white lace robe over courtesied to one another, danced the with silver trimmings. Mrs. James F and tan-colored voile. Miss Mabel Wehrkamp an empire gown of yellow satin empire coral satin, trimmed with lace, Hagan.

Ticket committee-P. J. Haltigan, chairman; John

the cause of human freedom."

Dr. Bulloch, the chancellor, was then introduced. After telling of the history of the order, which was founded in 1885, Dr. Bulloch declared that such a society of chivalry does not savor of aristocracy.

"This is a society of chivalry," he said, "composed of gentlemen whose ancestors alded in founding this great country, and is a hereditary order as honorable as any, for its requirements are of such a nature that one must be well born cre he can Is a hereditary order as honorable as any, for its requirements are of such a nature that one must be well born ere he can become a member."

In closing, Dr. Bulloch urged his hearers to be faithful to the nation. He declared there is danger of Japan and Carrel the such as the such as a point of the such as the such The evolution of the flag, with its wealth of Chicago, wore pale green messaline. L. Degnan, and J. Pelham Dawson. wore a white lingerie gown, with hand

Gray and White.

Miss Marie Baker wore white messa line. Miss Gertie Rupertus wore a white lace robe over white silk. Mrs. James er; Dr. J. G. B. Bulloch, chancellor and event was the most original and success- ful observance ever held by the Calvary diamonds. Mrs. Scott Brady were gray Baptist Church, and the committees in and white striped slik, with touches of violet. Miss Bessie O'Hare wore blue messaline empire. Miss Anna Brady wore pink messaline.

Miss Anna Daw was in yellow messa line. Miss Mary Donnelly, yellow satin with silk braid jacket and diamonds, terday morning.

gloves studded with crystals.

Black Silk and Lace. Mrs. J. B. Geier wore black silk and in this city. Washington left a bequest lace. Miss Anna Trodden wore pink fig- for this purpose, and it was foremost in ured organdle over pink. Miss Cora Trodden was in pale blue and white organdie over blue, trimmed with silver and lace. Mrs. W. H. Connolly wore a Stretched out its full length, the banner directoire gown of white messaline. trimmed with duchesse lace of skirt and bodice, and pearls. Mrs. J. F. McGuire wore white crepe de chine with lavender lilac figures, trimmed with lace, and carried violets. Mrs. Har- ganization." rison Crook wore white messaline, trimmed with ball fringe of sllk, and a mpelos Punch -the daintiest white wine punch for select social functions. Ready for dilution. $2.50 gal., 65c full qt.

Christian Xander's

Christian Xander's Quality House, Phone M. 274 No branch bouses 909 7th St. N. W.

belt bouquet of pink and violet sweet

Miss Sally Harlow wore yellow messaine, with bands of narrow brown velvet and lace. Miss Dorothy Smith work each blow radium silk, trimmed with gold lace, and a helt bouquet of violets. Miss May Pierce wore blue silk and lace. Miss Beil Pierce was in princesse lace over white sijk. Mrs. Pierce wore black satin and lace.

Miss Margaret E. Normoyle wore pale pink messaline, trimmed with lace and embroidery of gold. Miss Ella Hill wore lavender crepe de chine with lace. Miss Stoutenburgh wore gray messaline. Miss Jane Dierken was in pink crepe de chine with a profusion of white lace. Mrs. Collins, wife of Dr. E. J. Collins, wore gray brocaded satin. Mrs. W. Walton Edwards were cream lace over canary satin, with trimmings of gold. Lavender Net,

Miss Dorls Cissel was in lavender net over lavender silk, with tiny quillings of the net, and pearls. Miss Nellie Shea wore a princesse gown of white lace, and a necklace of amethysts. Miss Nellie O'Hare were a directoire gown of blue messaline. Miss Hattie Boss wore pale second annual charity ball last evening at lavender figured messaline, with lace and violets. Miss May Kearney was in white satin and lace, made empire. Miss Jennie tics, medicine, and military and civilian ances which they have against the gov- room being in use, and filled with hand- Glennan wore mauve crepe de chine. His saturation and paid ernment before the body, in the hope somely gowned women and distinguished Miss Nora O'Brien was in white chiffon chiffon cloth, trimmed with filet lace and gold. Mrs. George Houlehan wore a diwith tiny tassels of silk. lightful and successful which the Knights have given. Supper was served in the nile green messaline, trimmed with sil- things. ver. Miss Teresa McDonald was in pink messaline, made empire, with coral trim-mings, with coral necklace. Miss Diehl wore coral pink messaline, with princesse bands of cloth of gold. Mrs. Robert lace. Miss E. L. Bryan wore black Mann, a black messaline directoire gown. spangled net over nile green silk, and dress lasting forty minutes. But he sen-Mrs. E. Chadsey was in pink chiffon and Miss N. Madden were black silk, trimmed tence quoted left a lingering idea in the Among the guests were nets.

Mrs. Lansburgh wore white satin, embroidered, and diamonds. Mrs. E. J. Collins, Mrs. McAuhffe, Mrs. J. Collins, Mrs. Pierce and daughters, Mrs. D. A. Edwards, Mrs. P. T. Moran, Mrs. E. T. Keegh, Miss Mary of black messalline. Mrs. R. L. Graves wore blue satin, trimmed with bands of pale blue and gold embroidery. Miss Loretta O'Connell, Mrs. John Pellen, Mrs. James A. Cahill wore a rich princess gown of coral chiffon cloth over silk of the same shade, with elaborate better the reception in Calvary Baptist Church

His eminence James Cardinal Gibbons, Baroness Mayor des Planches, Mme. Jusserand, Barpoess von Hengelmuller. Haroness Moncheur, Mme. de Nabuco, Mme. de Portela, Mme. de Quesada, Mrs. Ailes, Mrs. Bankhead, Mrs. Barbour, Mrs. Bell, Mrs. Bonaparte, Mrs. Carrico, Mrs. Coudert, Mrs. Cockran, Mrs. Cortelyon, Mrs. Crane, Mrs. Depew, Mrs. Elkins, Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. Heurich, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Larrinaga, Mrs. Heurich, Mrs. McKenna, Mrs. McLean, Mrs. Magruder, Mrs. Moseley, Mrs. Moses, Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. Roet, Mrs. Sands, Mrs. Semmes, Mrs. Vsugho, Mrs. Walsh, and Mrs. Wells.

The committees were as follows:

weight of associated atmosphere. The first scene showed the immortal streasure—numan liberty. Not so much limble, and this priceless treasure—numan liberty. Not so much limble, and the size the motion of all the agest to come.

Liberation of Colonies.

"In the liberation of Colonies.

"In the liberation of Colonies.

"In the liberation of the colonies and in the formation of the republic, he started the mightlest force in all the world for the advancement and enthronement of men. High devancement and enthronement of liberty in the hearts of and in the governments of men. How the death of the started liberty in the hearts of and in the governments of men. The stream of the started liberty in the hearts of and in the governments of men. The stream of the started liberty in the hearts of and in the governments of men. The stream of the public hearts and the stablishment of this gradual crimmed with stain bands and the stablishment of this gradual crimmed with stain bands and the stablishment of this gradual crimmed with stain bands and the the stablishment of this gradual crimmed with stain bands and the the stablishment of this gradual crimmed with stain bands and the the stablishment of this gradual crimmed with stain bands and the the stablishment of this gradual crimmed with stain bands and the the stablishment of this gradual crimmed with stain bands and the the stablishment of this gradual crimmed with stain bands and the the stablishment of this gradual crimmed with stain bands and the the stablishment of this gradual crimmed with stain bands and the three would have been no place for an abraham Lincolo the material state of the material starts and the stablishment of this gradual crimmed with stain bands and the control of the stablishment of this gradual crimmed with stain bands and the control of the stablishment of this gradual crimmed with stain bands and the control of the stablishment of this gradual crimmed with stain bands and the control of the stablishment of this gradual crimmed with sta

Placing This Capital Foremost.

Rabbi Simon Delivers Interesting Sermon Before the Association of Oldest Inhabitants.

That the greatest reverence could be politicians will gain control if publicdone the memory of Washington by mak-spirited citizens do not come to the front ing the city which bears his name the and do their share of the work of govforemost capital of the world, was the erning this nation. lace and pearls. Miss Abbie Glancy, old rose satin made directoire. Mrs. E. L. Simon before the Association of Oldest ability to get more money for his locality ommendations concerning forests, waters, Malloy, champagne-colored voile and lace, Inhabitants in Carroll Institute Hall yes- than his colleagues get-Mr. Burton said:

derson, old rose satin directoire gown, the character which he carved out for any particular section of the country, and the knowledge of others, and the declarawith lace and diamonds, and pearl head- himself. But we can do one thing. Let who will work for the best interests of tion will contain a selection of the ideas us make this city the first in war, first the nation as a whole." Miss Cecilia Nalley wore rose pink in peace, and first in the hearts of our crepe de chine with lace applique. Mrs. countrymen. We live in a city where on Gahn black lace princess gown, trimmed all sides we feel the pulse of the mighty of the high respect entertained for George return. with ribbons. Mrs. A. C. Joy, directoire character of the great George Washing- Washington by the French students of the old oratorios. The chorus is well trained, and has 150 voices, while the many trained, and has 150 voices, while the many trained, and has 150 voices, while the many trained trained, and has 150 voices, while the many trained to the great advance he had with gold fringe and embroidery of the many trained to the great advance he had with gold fringe and embroidery of the many trained to the great advance he had with gold fringe and embroidery of the many trained to the great advance he had with gold fringe and embroidery of the many trained to the great advance he had a mount of rainfall, for the twelve hours ended at 8 with gold fringe and embroidery of the many trained to the great advance he had a mount of rainfall, for the twelve hours ended at 8 with gold fringe and embroidery of the many trained to the great advance he had a mount of rainfall, for the twelve hours ended at 8 with gold fringe and embroidery of the many trained to the great advance he had a mount of rainfall to the great advance he had been many trained to the great advance he had a mount of rainfall to the great advance he had been many trained to the great advance he had been ma same shade. Miss Clara Manderfield, of proper respect to his memory is by mak- made in the cause of freedom the world Philadelphia, sheath gown of white satin, ing this city the finest in all the world." over. trimmed with crystal, a Grecian bonnet Another conception of Washington was Mrs. Thomas C. Noyes sang "The Star of pearls and brilliants, and her long touched upon by the eloquent Jewish Spangled Banner" by request. Instru> his thoughts on many occasions. The association was given a flag from Entertainment at the Clubhouse in Mrs. Allison Nailor, jr., whose husband was formerly president of the association. covers one entire wall of the hall. "I feel it a duty to place permanently national university, a fount of learning ported the passage of the bill which gives served in the rathskeller, the association the joint use of the Union . Last night's entertainment was the engine house with the Veteran Firemen. sixth of a series given by the lodge for A resolution, introduced by W. H. Singleton, was adopted extending thanks to the District Committees in Congress for passing the bill. Tight Squeeze, From the Chicago News.

Mr. Green (in pet)-Well, Maria, if the shoe fits you, wear it. Mrs. Green-How absurd, Henry. know I never wear a shoe that fits me. I always wear a size smaller.

BURTON'S PHRASE CAUSES COMMENT

Cryptic Utterance as to the "Real Culprit."

DECLARES THE STATES REMISS

Points to George Washington as the Seer Who Foresaw the Future Greatness of the American Nation. Declares the Country Is Not for Politicians-Jusserand Speaks,

"The real culprit is not the man who is in politics, but the man who isn't." What did Representative Theodore E. Burton mean when he said this in the course of his address at the Washington cloth and duchesse lace, trimmed with Birthday celebration of the Sons of the Revolution at the new Masonic Temple

The Ohioan invelghed also against that degree of centralization which tends to rectoire gown of lavender crepe de chine, handsomely embroidered and trimmed make sovereign States remiss in handling their own immediate problems if they can Mrs. Clark were pink messaline and "work" Congress for appropriations from lace. Miss Katherine Richmond wore the Federal Treasury to do the same

Listened Eagerly,

An audience of 700 persons listeened Kenealy wore wistaria satin, embroid- eagerly to every word Mr. Burton said, ered in pale green. Miss Marie Kenealy and had no difficulty in interpreting nearly all his clean-cut utterances in an adminds of some of his hearers that it Intimated more than appeared on the sur-

Whether it was intended as an indirect answer to President Roosevelt's reflections on Congressmen in the Secret Serv-

But in a general way the Ohio member advanced the view that the average citizen should not be prone to condemn men in public life for alleged shortcomings unless the citizen himself was actively doing his part to improve the condition of which he complained. An aroused put ic conscience and realization of responbility is the proper antidote, he suggest ed, with a few sympathetic side remarks on the political disfranchisement of Wash-

Mr. Burton stuck closely to his theme "Washington's influence on present day political problems." His finished manner of delivery, no less than his strong patriotic appeal, evoked frequent applause. Early in his remarks, in com-pliment to the presence of the Italian Ambassador and his party, he alluded to the gift by Congress of $800,000 for the Messina earthquake sufferers as illus trative of the first President's policy of riendship toward all nations, while re using to become involved in "entangling of other co-ordinate branches so long as the duties of each branch are clearly de-Printing committee-James A. Earley, chairman; fined and properly attended to. Lax laws drawn by the legislative department will with lace applique, with pearl dog collar and pearl ornaments. Miss McFarland, George L. Dant, H. A. Buscher, D. J. Lix, Thomas the powers of the judicial department undoubtedly result in a strengthening of when it comes to pass upon them. If Congress gives way too much to the Executive, the powers of that office will be ncreased, and vice versa.

Seated on the Platform. William Stone Abert, president of the

"That scheme of centralization of power in the Federal government which would Washington Should Be Honored by take away the powers of the State governments is, to my mind, wholly wrong. However, the State governments must do matters they should decide for them-selves, it is to be expected that the power of the Federal government will in by just so much, and centralization is the natural result. "This country is not for politicians, but lating to the conservation of the re for men who are not politicians. But the sources of North America.

"If I were advising people whom to col will be submitted, in which each counsend to Congress, I should tell them to try gives its word to follow the lines laid Mrs. Edward Volght wore white satin, embroidered, and diamonds. Mrs. J. A. Balsaid Rabbi Simon, "nor can we beautify against unreasonable appropriations for the commissioners have profited from preacher, and that is the need of a great mental music was furnished by the Marine Band.

Ambassador Speaks.

ELKS GIVE DANCE.

Honor of Washington's Birthday. The members of the Washington Lodge of Elks celebrated the birthday of George Washington with a dance last evening at in your keeping," said Mrs. Nailor's let-ter, "the 'Starry Banner' that my dear The ballroom The ballroom on the third floor was husband always identified with your or- elaborately decorated with the national colors, with a touch of purple and white On the part of the association, Gen. the colors of the B. P. O. E., added. John M. Wilson made repig. In the Music was furnished by a portion of the business session Dr. B. W. Summy re- Marine Band, and refreshments were completely successful.

tives, too.'

From the Chicago Tribune. really get my ballot marked the way I wanted it. I never vote straight, anyhom. I'm sure to always split my tick-

THE PALAIS ROYAL

39c for $1.00 Combs.

Carved Shell Combs, 61/2 inches wide. The picture shows one of the two hundred and sixteen here. Note the hand-finished teeth-how smooth they are-telling you they are worth $1.00, if for no other reason.

Solid Gold Collar Pin Sets, 50c.

You pay $1.00 per set at the jewelry stores for these real gold pins. Here to-morrow at only 50c per set. Please do not let this price make a precedent. They cannot be retailed here regularly at less than 89c.

Look for other bargains—the "buyer" returned from New York yesterday. He and we were celebrating Washington's Birthday—hence only scraps of news get in this morning's Herald.

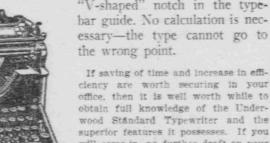

The Palais Royal, G.St., 11th St.

Correcting Mistakes

They will make mistakes sometimes-typewriter operatorsbut who won't? 'The important thing is to correct mistakes with the least possible loss of time. With

The Underwood

The visible writing makes the error immediately apparent. Then the place for a replacing letter is shown-right in line with the "V-shaped" notch in the typebar guide. No calculation is nec-the wrong point. If saving of time and increase in efficlency are worth securing in your office, then it is well worth while to obtain full knowledge of the Underwood Standard Typewriter and the superior features it possesses. If you will come in, no further draft on your time and patience will be made than you choose to permit.

UNDERWOOD TYPEWRITER COMPANY, Inc. 1206 F Street Northwest.

Funeral from Hamline M. E. Church Tuesday, February 23, at 2 p. m.

COLLINS-On Saturday, February 20, 1909 at 6:55 p. m., at the Home for In-curables, ROBERT S. COLLINS, aged Seventy-six years.

Cuneral from the residence of his brother, Samuel H. Collins, 1408 Thirty-fifth street northwest, Tuesday, February 23, at 8:30 a.m. Requiem mass at Holy Trinity Catholic Church seventy-six years.

DUGUID-On Monday, February 22, 1969, at 12:50 a. m., ELIZA A., widow of at 12:50 a. m., ELIZA A., widow of Robert Duguida. Funeral from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Noyes, 236 Second street northwest, Wednesday, February 24, at 2:30 p. m. Relatives and friends invited.

WILL RESUME CONFERENCE. Conservation Commission Holds Sesslons at Home of Gifford Pinchot. Although yesterday was a holiday, the their part. If they are continually seek- nine conservation commissions, representing aid from the national government in ing the governments of the United States, Canada, and Mexico, met at the home of Gifford Pinchot, chief of the Bureau of Forestry of the Department of Agriculture, to continue their deliberations re-

To-day they will resume their talks at the State Department, and to-morrow they will submit the results of their con Referring to the Congressman's so- sultations to President Roosevert in and minerals. With the report a prote of the best minds of the continent. retary of State Bacon, one of the members of the commission, was absent, and M. Jusserand, French Ambassador, told the document will not be signed until his

> EXHIBIT SALE

CARPETS At lowest prices ever offered in Washington,

Our guarantee covers every specimen offered.

Tom the Chicago Tribune.
"Yes, it took me all of five minutes to W. B. Moses & Sons, F Street, Cor. 11th. Founded 1861. "I see you're sure to split pour infiniDIED.

909 at 2:10 a. m., MARY, widow of 1909, at 3:10 a.m., MARY, whow of Bernard Fitzpatrick. Cuneral from her late residence, 1902. Rhode Island avenue northwest, Tues-day, February 23, at 10 a.m.; thence GANS—On Sunday, February 21, 1999, at 7:45 p. m., BETTY GANS, beloved mother of Mrs. Samuel Bieber and Mrs. Welf Kaufman, of Chicago, in her ninety-fourth year.

Funeral Tuesday, February 22, at 2 p. m. from her late residence, 630 G street southeast. Funeral private. Omit flowers.

Omit flowers. HALL-On Sunday, February 21, 1909, at 12:50 o'clock, JEANNETTE HALL, be-12:50 o'clock, JEANNETTE HALL, beloved daughter of James and Mary Hall, and sister of Emma B., Leonora, and Charles Hall, and Ethel Spriggs, aged thirteen years.

Funeral from her late residence, 15:29 Fifth street northwest, Wednesday, February 24, at 2 p. m. Friends and Relatives invited to attend.

at Holy Trinity Catholic Church o'clock. Interment Holy Rood MORIARTY—On Monday. February 22, 1909, at 8:30 p. m., CATHARINE MO-RIARTY, at 1506 Sixth street north-

Notice of funeral hereafter. MULLOY-On Saturday, February 20, 1909, AGNES V., the only and beloved daughter of the late Lulu and Frank Mulloy. Funeral from her father's residence, 1211 K street southeast, on Tuesday, February 23, at 3 p. m. Friends and relatives invited to attend. Interment in Prospect Hill Cemetery.

D'DEA-On Sunday, February 21, 1909, at 8 p. m., MICHAEL O'DEA, the be-loved son of the late Hannah McCann and John O'Dea. Funeral from his late residence, 2294 D street southwest, on Tuesday, Febru-ary 23, at 10 a. m.; mass at St. Domi-nic's Church. Relatives and friends invited to attend. invited to attend.

Invited to attend.

QUILL—On Sunday, February 21, 1909, at 19:35 a. m., ELIZA QUILL.

Funeral from her late residence, 621 G street southwest, Tuesday, February 23, at 8:39 a. m.; thence to St. Dominic's Church, where regulem mass will be said for the repose of her soul, Relatives and friends invited to attend. SCHULTZE—On Sunday, February 21, 1909, at 7:52 p. m., at the residence of her sister-in-law, Mrs. James Mowatt, 229 D street southwest, LULA R. SCHULTZE (nee Burch), beloved wife of Harry A. Schultze, in her twentyninth year.

SPEAKMAN-Suddenly, on Sunday, February 21, 1909, GEORGE W. SPEAKMAN, son of the late Enoch C, and Sarah M. Speakman.

Funeral from the residence of his brother, III G stroet northwest, Wedlesday, February 24, at 2 p. m. Friends and relatives invited. Interment at Congressional Cemetery. THOMAS-On Saturday, February 20, 1900 at Georgetown University Hospital, JAMES L. THOMAS. Funeral on Tuesday, February 23, at 1 p. m., at 614 Four-and-a-half street southwest. Friends and relatives in-vited to attend. WARD-On Sunday, February 21, 1909, at 8:30 a. m., at 1883 Irving street, HENRY T. WARD, aged sixty years. Funeral from his late residence, 1383 Irving street, Tuesday, February 23, at 11 a. m. (Upper Marlboro, Md., and Richmond, Va., papers please copy.) FOUNG-On Sunday, February 21, 1999, at noon, at Georgetown University Hos-pital, JOSEPHINE YOUNG. uneral from Trinity Church, George-town, Tuesday, February 23, at 9 a. m. Interment private.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS.

J. WILLIAM LEE, Funeral Director And Embainer. Livery in connection. Commodicus Chapel and Modern Crematorium. Modest prices. 232 Pennsylvania ave. nw. Telephone Main 1335.

GEORGE P. ZURHORST. 301 East Capitol Street.

FUNERAL DESIGNS. FUNERAL FLOWERS. G U D E , PHONE M 423

214 F ST. NORTHWEST GEO. C. SHAFFER, FLORAL DESIGNS; REASONABLE PRICES.
'Phone 241 Main. 16th and Eye sta 125.